VISIT TURKU ARCHIPELAGO

The Food Capital of Finland

- As the self-proclaimed food capital of Finland, Turku is proud to justify such a prestigious title. Turku's food culture is visible all year round. As well as amazing restaurants with talented chefs serving seasonal and locally sourced culinary experiences, there are lots of different food events organised in the city. Be sure to check out festivals like the New Potato Festival, vegan street festival Vegânia and the riverside events like the Turku Herring Market and Archipelago Market. The Market Hall is the number one destination in town if you are a true foodie. A culinary heaven with local delicacies such as the Archipelago bread, various fish dishes and pastries, awaits you!
